Calling To You

Robert Plant

Beyond the river, over the sea
Somewhere past last farewell that ever will be
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Out in the blue now just waiting to feedA little breath of selflessness adrift in all the greed
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Long before the mountains cry Adam and Eve
All the world we knew was fire and still was the seedJust the seed oh, you can hear it now
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Where you gonna go, when you gonna stop?
Who stole the keys to the gates of the castle of love?Yeah, what's goin' down now, what's goin' on, what's goin' down?
Yes, yes, oh yes
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Who you gonna call, what you gonna say?
Standin' in the shadows as the world's just fadin' awayIt's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Who you gonna call, what you gonna stop?
Who stole the keys to the gates of the castle of love?It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
It's callin' to you, callin' to you, callin' to you
Who you gonna call, what you wanna say?
Standin' in the shadows as the world's just fadin' awayJust fadin' away
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Just fadin' away
Just fadin' awayJust fadin' away
Just fadin' away
Yeah, oh Jimmy
