Kitty Come Home

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

No scheme and no direction with only one way to turn pack up all your children come home to our love and concern Kitty come homeNo being however mighty where chaos reigns alone will see his feeble love grow when cast upon a stone Kitty come homeOooh Kitty come homeThe birds in the trees call your name Nothing's changed, all's the sameHome, Come home
Home, Kitty come home (x2)All of God's good angels need a place to fly come be our little seryph in this paradise
Kitty come homeHome, Kitty come home
Home, Kitty come home
Home, Kitty come home
