

Cold Shoulder

Josh Turner

If I?da lied, if I?da cheated, I?d understand
I?ve tried my best to be the perfect man
Now all I really wanna do is hold ?er
But all she?s given me tonight is a cold shoulder
I wish that she would tell me what she?s going through
Or go ahead and leave me if she?s going to
But it?s like she hasn?t heard a word I?ve told ?er
All she?s given me tonight is a cold shoulder
I don?t know the woman she?s turned into

But I do know that she?s got my heart turning blue
The more she turns her back, the more the nights get colder
I put all the blame on her, cold shoulder
I wish that she would tell me what she?s going through
Or go ahead and leave me if she?s going to
But it?s like she hasn?t heard a word I?ve told ?er
All she?s given me tonight is a cold shoulder
From the looks of fades it?s looking like it?s over
And all I?ve waited on tonight is a cold shoulder
Yea, all I?ve waited on tonight is a cold shoulder
