Girl I sleep on that thing, it's like a pillow
So much heat, she could roast a marshmallow
She getting cheese from the fella with the jello
She could juggle that, make a poor man pat his pockets
When he struggling, with 2 hands she smuggling
You couldn't palm with that biggest hand
That way she dance, like midgets wrestlin' in her pants
And her back end, packin
Actin like you smack it
It attracting passion without even her askin
Okay! Feel like a pervert
Try to make eye contact
I can't they're on her skirt
