Standing on the Outside

The Bar-Kays

You and I, we were alright
And then you suddenly changed
Without a cue, I had lost you
As if I never knew your nameSo many things to say
And I need to find a way
Cause its though youre here but gone
And Im left here all aloneOn the outside, well
(Standing on the outside)
Whoa, baby
(Standing on the outside)
Im standing on the outside, yeah
(Standing on the outside)Maybe you do, then maybe you dont
Or maybe you dont even care
He has no love and he has no heart
And baby, I know thats not fair, no babySo many things to say
And I need to find a way
Cause its though youre here but gone
And Im left here all aloneOn the outside, oww, whoa, baby
(Standing on the outside)
Whoa, ho, yeah
(Standing on the outside)Im standing on the outside, yeah, yeah
(Standing on the outside)
Cant you hear me callin, baby
(Standing on the outside)Oh, Im, whoa, Im
(Standing on the outside)
Hmm, hmm, hmm
(Standing on the outside)
Im, oh, Im
(Standing on the outside)
Oww, whoa, manHmm, hey

(Standing on the outside)
