Dem Gone

Martin Bashir

Jah, Jah is real, Jah, Jah is realDem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one day
Dem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one dayEvery day you get up and wish to have a meal
Now you get a cut and wish to have it heal
And still you can not accept that Jah Jah is real
Tell me Mr.Man what's the dealYou say you have everything sign and seal
Thought you won the case but not you a appeal
You are the one who couldn't hear, now you the one to feel
Evidently clear we choppin' down your shieldDem ain't going nowhere no time soon
Dem corrupt the east and now dem turn it to the moon
Plantain your garden and wish that it will bloom
But still you're singing Satan tunesDem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one day
Dem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one dayMother Earth was meant for man and woman to stay
Me find out 'nuff a dem drifting away
Children can't even find a place fi play
Birds can't find no seeds, horses no hayI see the weavers weaving but dem income delay
Still me see dem searching for a brighter day
And now me come fi give it to you right away
Do you hear what I sayDem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one day
Dem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one dayWhat happen 'em?Give me the mic deh for a moment make me talk to dem
And watch the Eden dem a scatter when we walk to dem
And if you know you are not guilty, stand up and don't you run
To all my foes and friendsYou may live to see today but you know know the end
Just read the writings on the wall, it's a message we send
And Babylon will never live to stop the rising of Jah sonDem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one day
Dem gone so far away, dem gone
The hole a dem ago regret it one day
