

Powerful Feeling

Corey Smith

Hey young lady,
Don't be alarmed,
He might come on kinda strong,
But he don't mean you any harm,
You write the book,
Make him learn the rules,
Once you get him trained oh,
You can let him bend a few.
If he ain't told ya yet,
He will soon enough,
We suffer here together girl,
We're achin' to be loved, It's a powerful feeling,
When the flame hits the fuse,
No concern for the damage,
When your days get confused.
Oh no, what a powerful feeling.
It's a powerful feeling Hello young man,
Try to be polite,
Mind your filthy manners boy,
You'd better treat her right,
If you go to dinner,
Don't run out on the bill,
Don't go blowin' out the candles,
'Cause you think you've sealed the deal,
The tough get goin' when the goin' gets tough,
But goin's not the answer when she's achin' to be loved. (no) It's a powerful feeling,
When the flame hits the fuse,
No concern for the damage,
When your days get confused.
Oh no, sun burns in a halo,
(It's a powerful feeling)
Little scars in your eyes,
(It's a powerful feeling)
Got struck by the blow,
When you first realize,
What a powerful feeling Cute little babies grow to girls and boys,
Mommys and Daddys keep a bedroom full of toys,
But they come of age, learn what their parts are for,
Put 'em together and they're not children anymore, (no) (It's a powerful feeling)

Sun burns in a halo,
(It's a powerful feeling)
Little stars in your eyes,
(It's a powerful feeling)
Dumb struck by the blow,
What a stupid surprise,
It's a powerful feeling,
It's a powerful feeling.
It's a powerful feeling.
It's a powerful feeling.
It's a powerful feeling.
