Smile and Wave

HEADSTONES

Billy's got a Ph.D. and Sara she's a teacher, they love to rock 'n' roll
And blow their brains out on the weekend
Together they have built a world, a lot of it is real
And we are here to ease them through the parts they can't concealI smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and waveNow their swearing up and down, they're comin' off so clean
Surely they will fall to their doom
Another inch closer, closer to the railin'
And nobody here is ever fooledI smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave, yeah!I smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave, yeah!A lot of rain and fancy coffees
Best suited couple I know
They spend everything that they've ever harnessed
Now tell me, how is your happy home?I smile and wave
I smile and wave
I smile and wave, yeah!
I smile and waveAnd I wave and I'm smiling
And I wave
And I wave
And I waveAnd I wave
And I wave
And I wave
And I wave
