

Shoes 'n' Hats

Smash Mouth

The shoes you wear
Ain't the shoes I'd wear
But I don't care
You got things to say
But they're thrown away
'Cause they're so passe
To them, they
Who are they anyway?
They're just beatin' each other
At bein' each other
With nothin' to say So everyone cares
'Cause the hat that he wears
Is on the wrong way
And I heard them say
"Don't be square"
So square we'll stay
Without them, they
Who are they anyway?
They're just beatin' each other
At bein' each other
With nothin' to say I'm holdin' on
To my old man's sneakers
Just goin' deaf
To my hi-fi records and
Hangin' round
At the pawn shop
Waitin' for
Nothin' to change
Anything strange
Is wrong So here we are
In a dead man's car
Goin' to that show
In my old chapeau
Well it's full of holes
But it's got more soul
Than them, they
Who are they anyway?
They're just beatin' each other
At bein' each other

With nothin' to say
