

Miss You-Miss Me

Dolly Parton

Letra de Miss You, Miss Me -

"Miss You, Miss Me"

Miss me,

Don't you miss someone to hold you, now in the end?

And kiss me

And tell me I'm your lil' girl againDaddy, when you left, did you remove yourself

From every sweet remembrance of me?

I'm always missing you, I hope you miss me too

And everything we were and still could beMiss little things like walking in the park

Miss summer nights with fireflies in the jar

Big memories of you playing your guitar

Miss all of this, it's true, but mostly I miss you

'Cause no one else could ever take your placeAnd momma, don't you miss that home is all about

And all the drama caused by the anger you keep acting out?

Why can't you both just see, you didn't divorce me?

Forgive, forget and try to get along

I miss us being close, I love and miss you both

Don't miss the plea I've written in my songYour little miss is missing out on you

And you're both missing out on so much too

Put pride aside and do what you should do

Don't make me have to choose,

'Cause I love the both of you

Just let resentment go, and think of meYou've torn my world apart, and it breaks my little heart

Can't you see me? And see me missing you?

Oooh, I miss you, I miss you, miss me!

Miss me! I miss you. Miss me!
