Coffee & Vanilla

Glenn Hughes

He loves the outdoor spirit
He's no computer man
He hates the city traffic
He doesn't understandHe keeps a ledger diary
'Cause he's a conscious manShe's into Garbo movies
She has a retro style
That girl knows what the truth is
With her painted smileShe likes to workout
With her guru videoAnd we don't look for trouble
Can we break it down
As we sit at the table?And we won't burst that bubble
And we come around
Are you ready and able
Like coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanilla?They eat at Joe's Cantina
They like to walk the Strand
They love the Riviera
They get there when they canShe dance like Ginger Rogers
He moves like Fred Astaire
But they're just cosmic lovers
You see them everywhereShe's the comedy queen
He's the late night kingAnd we don't look for trouble
Can we break it down
As we sit at the table?And we won't burst that bubble
And we come around
Are you ready and able?And we don't look for trouble
Can we break it down
As we sit at the table?And we won't burst that bubble
And we come around
Are you ready and able?And they have given life a second chance
And they won't let go
No need for loneliness with just one glance
Will we ever know? Will we ever know?And we don't look for trouble
Can we break it down
As we sit at the table?And we won't burst that bubble
And we come around
Are you ready and able?And we don't look for trouble
Can we break it down
As we sit at the table?And we won't burst that bubble

And we come around
Are you ready and able?Like coffee and vanilla
Just like coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanillaLike coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanilla
Like coffee and vanilla
