

When the Lights Go Out

Wall of Voodoo

Jimmy, Jimmy,
where have you been? We had a date.
It's four am and you're five hours late again.
Jimmy said he had a feeling tonight...
He couldn't go to sleep,
it was getting light...
Drank some coffee and I got a buzz, so I got myself a fifth with a friend. And then the lights go out, and he said it'll be the same as yesterday,
Hey-hey.
When the lights go out,
it'll be the same,
Hey-hey. Simi Valley, where the hell is that?
When I woke up, I swore I'd quit, no more, no more, I swore I swore. And then the lights go out, and he said it'll be the same as yesterday,
Hey-hey.
When the lights go out,
it'll be the same,
Hey-hey.
