You Yes You

Tune-Yards

Now that everything is gunna be okay
Now that everything is gunna be alright
What if baby I cannot see the sound?
What if baby I cannot hear the light?Now that everything is gunna be okay
Now that everything is gunna be alright
What if baby I cannot see the sound?
What if baby I cannot hear the light?Whats that about?
Whats that about?Whats that about?
Whats that about?Now that everything is gunna be okay
Now that everything is gunna be alright
What if baby I cannot see the sound?
What if baby I cannot hear the light?Now that everything is gunna be okay
Now that everything is gunna be alright
What if baby I cannot see the sound?
What if baby I cannot hear the light?I was born to do it
My daddy had enough so I put my back into it
That man was born to do it too
We didnt have enough so we cannot sing for you--HA!If home is where the heart is baby
Then my home is inside you
I dont need a linen room of diamonds
Yeah a chicken shed will doIf home is where the heart is baby
Then my home is inside you
I dont need a linen room of diamonds
Yeah a chicken shed will do do do doI was born to do it
My daddy had enough so I put my back into it
That man was born to do it too
We didnt have enough so we can-ahhhh!
I was born to do it
My daddy had enough so I put my back in--
Th-th-that man was born to do it too
We didnt have enough so we cannot sing for you--HA!Throw your money on the ground and leave it there
You, yes, youNow that everything is gunna be okay(In the morning we see some trees. All goodnight to you.)
