

Lily '14

Sundy Best

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've never been one to cigarette smoke
But my nerves are shot
I need an antidote
And my mouth is dry
After summer in the south
She's sticking to her guns
And I'm down and out
Goodbye, Lily, I'm gone for good
Packed up my things
Like I said I would
The road is dark and I can barely see
Goodbye, Lily, no more leaving me
There's no more leaving me
She called me up last night at three
She said it hurts like hell
Being left by me
My love for her was like aged alcohol
The older it grew the harder I'd fall
Goodbye, Lily, I'm gone for good
Packed up my things
Like I said I would
The road is dark and I can barely see
Goodbye, Lily, no more leaving me
Well, I've tossed and I've turned
I've broken down but I've learned
Swerve off the road
I'm trying to catch my breath
I've been running on fumes
And running half dead
It's not the new, we're the old instead
Because running from you
It's like running from death

Goodbye, Lily, I'm gone for good
Packed up my things
Like I said I would
The road is dark and I can barely see
Goodbye, Lily, no more leaving me
Say goodbye, say goodbye
Say goodbye, say goodbye
Say goodbye to me, baby
I've never been one to cigarette smoke
But my nerves are shot
I need an antidote
Say goodbye, say goodbye
Yeah, I need an antidote
Say goodbye, say goodbye
