Stompa (The Voice Performance)

Jacquie Lee

There's a light and I can see it in your eyes
There's a memory of the way you used to be Nothing's gone it still shines evey time you turn it on
And when you slow it down...People, working every night and day
Never give yourself no time
Got too many bills to pay
Slow down, nothing's gonna disappear
If you give yourself some room
To move to the music you hearGotta get up, listen to me
Clappa your hands, stompa your feetPeople, looking for the great escape
Looking to the greener side
Trying to find a better way
Slow down; open up your big brown eyes
Feel the rhythm in your heart
You don't even need to tryGotta get up, listen to me
Clappa your hands, stompa your feet
Nothing is wrong, if you move to the beat
Clappa your hands
Stompa your feet
Stompa your feetWhen you can't seem to shake off all the feelings that are breakingLittle pieces of the music that's in you
All the pain that you feel
I can prove it's not real
There's just one thing you gotta doGotta get up, listen to me
Clappa your hands, stompa your feet
Nothing is wrong, if you move to the beat
Clappa your hands
Stompa your feet
Stompa your feetStompa your feet, stompa your feet
