

Stompa (The Voice Performance)

Jacquie Lee

There's a light and I can see it in your eyes
There's a memory of the way you used to be Nothing's gone it still shines every time you turn it on
And when you slow it down...People, working every night and day
 Never give yourself no time
 Got too many bills to pay
 Slow down, nothing's gonna disappear
 If you give yourself some room
 To move to the music you hearGotta get up, listen to me
Clappa your hands, stompa your feetPeople, looking for the great escape
 Looking to the greener side
 Trying to find a better way
 Slow down; open up your big brown eyes
 Feel the rhythm in your heart
You don't even need to tryGotta get up, listen to me
 Clappa your hands, stompa your feet
 Nothing is wrong, if you move to the beat
 Clappa your hands
 Stompa your feet
Stompa your feetWhen you can't seem to shake off all the feelings that are breakingLittle pieces of the music
 that's in you
 All the pain that you feel
 I can prove it's not real
There's just one thing you gotta doGotta get up, listen to me
 Clappa your hands, stompa your feet
 Nothing is wrong, if you move to the beat
 Clappa your hands
 Stompa your feet
Stompa your feetStompa your feet, stompa your feet
