

I Will Be The End Of You

Him

Caught under the starry night
Breathing in everything but air
See as the fire light
Dies in your eyes
Oh you're leaving Love screaming
I will be the end of you
And I'm pleading
Don't you stop now
Go on and tear me apart
Show me all that you've got
And I will be so free Hear the cries of the stormy skies
Letting go of all that she has held in
Waiting for that shadow to smile
And realize you're not winning me Love screaming
I will be the end of you
And I'm pleading
Don't you stop now
Go on and tear me apart
Show me all that you've got
We will be so free Love screaming
I will be the end of you
And I'm pleading
Don't you stop now
Go on and tear me apart
Show me all that you've got
We will be so free
Free from all that has been
So free from all that we've seen
So free
