Heartbeat

Ice Ages

Here my heart; my heartbeat is your time
Feel this trembling sound, take care don't let it plunge you into miseryDreadful dreams will be your home divine
In your narrow mind, a torturous path will lead you to your enemyMindless lives will greet you from afar
Walls that bind their minds will be for you the boarder to your emptinessBreath this life like it will breath in you.
Come out of your shell, believe in me- your eyes will see just endlessness.Take this forces if you like
Leave your memories here, in my forgotten soul
Drag your burdens to the dark
Let them be beside mine- in obscurity
