

Heartbeat

Ice Ages

Here my heart; my heartbeat is your time

Feel this trembling sound, take care don't let it plunge you into misery
Dreadful dreams will be your home divine

In your narrow mind, a torturous path will lead you to your enemy
Mindless lives will greet you from afar

Walls that bind their minds will be for you the boarder to your emptiness
Breath this life like it will breath in you.

Come out of your shell, believe in me- your eyes will see just endlessness.
Take this forces if you like

Leave your memories here, in my forgotten soul

Drag your burdens to the dark

Let them be beside mine- in obscurity
