You Are Beautiful

Deaf Havana

Where have you been?
The spell of lonliness
And the heartache of distance
Is all we have left

And when your dress hits the floor
It's obvious
You're being well kept
It's obvious

Cause waiting for what seems a fucking lifetime
For a night with you

Cause I belong to you
And you are beautiful
And I know your heart if full
And you are beautiful

When we crossed out
(uncomprehendable)
We'll settle down
As I began to wonder
And fingers start to creep
This is just enough to keep us warm
To keep us warm

Cause wating for what seems a fucking lifetime
For a night with you

Cause I belong to you
And you are beautiful
And I know your heart if full
And you are beautiful

And how could I ever leave you behind
when our distance is as perfect as this?

And how could I ever leave you behind
when our distance is as perfect as this?

Cause I belong to you
And you are beautiful
And I know your heart if full
And you are beautiful

Cause I belong to you
And you are beautiful
And I know your heart is full
And you are beautiful

And I could never leave you behind
And I could never leave you
