Pleaseâ€¦ Donâ€™t Be Yourself

Soulwax

Some try to warn be 'bout your acting skills
They say, theres a method in the way you feel
The void you so desperately try to soothe
So give me a drink before I love you tooIt only takes fifteen if you take in account
The last five minutes you just didn't countSomeone else just took your place
The same old story 'bout a different face
I'm not gonna wait 'till you say, farewell
And please, please don't be yourselfIt only takes fifteen if you take in account
The last five minutes you just went aroundIt only takes fifteen if you take in account
The last five minutes you just didnt countSome go to classes in [Incomprehensible] school
And they only make sense if you play by the rules
And don't forget to compromise
But I'm not sure that you realizeIt only takes fifteen if you take in account
The last five minutes you just went aroundIt only takes fifteen if you take in account
The last five minutes you just didnt count
