Resistance

QueensrÃ¿che

Protests in New York.
Listen to the call of the wild.
Brother, sisters carrying signs.
Breathe deep before it's too late;
The sky is falling, burning your eyes.
Down in New Orleans river's boiling.
Nothing living, nothing to eat.
Thank the Lord, daddy's working 8-5.
Paying the doctor, baby's got cancer.

Give and take.
Has all we've learned been wrong?
Look around at what we've been given.
Maybe we've taken too long.

Resistance shouts the man on the right.
Can't solve the problem overnight.
Resistance listen to the call of the wild.

Burning coal.
Got to keep the company warm as
The rain keeps killing the trees.
Cut 'em down quick.
Pay the man his wage, he's making paper
To fuel the "Information Age".
Out in the mid west,
Hear the roar of the plough,
Turning grassland into sand.
Got to feed the people more every day
But the wind keeps blowing the land away.

Give and take.
Has all we've learned been wrong?
Look around at what we've been given.
Maybe we've taken too long.

Resistance
shouts the man on the right.
Can't solve the problem overnight.
Resistance

Liberal opposition crying violation.
Stop the madness.
Resistance
Through the din, one voice we should hear.
Resistance
Listen to the call of the wild.

There's no easy solution.
The price is high, and it's time to pay.
Turn of the century vision
Focused on a better way.
Resistance shouts the man on the right.
Can't solve the problem overnight.

Resistance liberal opposition crying violation.
Stop the madness.
Resistance Through the din, one voice we should hear.
Resistance Listen to the call of the wild.
