

Cater to Your Ego

sElf

there's something in the water someone breathing your air now it will all have to wait it's quite important that we tie you down and keep you there
- chorus -
she's all gone, shunned by everyone if you wait too long, they'll cater to your ego
i believe in your head all the answers are wrongshe didn't count on the backlash rejection petty little juvenile crimes now tell me who you startin' to date little girl a boy or the world
maybe they dig pretention maybe you dig taboo, now it'll all have to wait until we analyze the data when they're thru with you
- chorus -
if you wait too long, they'll cater to your ego
ms. know-it-all, it's hard to pick a side will they break your fall or assassinate your tour guide
all the the tension is gone
- chorus -
all the answers are wrong
