Shadows

Nasum

Tell me where these shadows came from
What clouded our reality?
Was is it just too easy or was it just the pain?
Was it all enough for you to bring us to the end?Covered up by motion blur
There were no mistakes
Yet, I feel it burnQualified to measure my own misery
I cannot believe there is nothing left for me
Tell me why I even bother, tell me why I sit and cry
You said every word so clear, yet, I sit here wonder whyDarkness struck by lightning
Divided into half's
No reason nor a purpose
The end just came so fastAll that's left is shadows
Cast by our shallow dreams
But the fire is still burning
So deep inside, inside of meI will not give up until
The truth's nailed to the wall
The lies won't serve our purpose
In corruption lies our fallThe over mind is dying
Its eyes can't see us all
But I'll be here when you are gone
I'll make it through the storm
