ambulances (acoustic)

Institute

This staying alive can kill you
It's taking years off of my life
Build my world within you
But loneliness comesYou can cure you're iodine
The world is better for your grace
If I plead insanity
Can I still crash at your place?There are only so many ambulances
To go around
There are only so many accidents
It's the universe coming downNot trying to kill you
It's just proof of life
Not trying to kill you
One day at a timeShe feeds off desire
She's in me
To world's I'd never guessed
I am sure she'll be with me until the very endThere are only so many ambulances
Less you ask the more you see
There are only so many accidents
It's the universe and nothing's freeI'm not trying to kill you
It's just moves of life
Not trying to kill you
One day at a time
Not trying to kill you
One day, one dayOh, life can be so unwell
Oh, speeding between heaven and hell
Oh, lately there's been so much to tellThere are only so many ambulances
There are only so many ambulancesNot trying to kill you
It's just proof of life
Not trying to kill you
One day at a time
Not trying to kill you
One day, one day, heyThere are only so many ambulances
To go around, to go around
To go around
