It May Rain Sometime

Incognito

It may rain sometime
Can't be all sunshine
May even snow a little
Because the heart is brittleIt may rain sometime
Can't be all sunshine
Like the sparrow's disappear
I hope and pray you'll reappearA fleeting light, some solid ground
The faintest murmur brings me hope
A late night call, a passing car
Brings a pounding to my heartIt may rain sometime
Can't be all sunshine
May even snow a little
Because the heart is brittleIt may rain sometime
Can't be all sunshine
Like the sparrow's disappear
I hope someday you'll reappear
