Outsiders

N'we Jinan Artists

Intro
Though we may feel like an outsider looking in let us live inside the truth

Allison MacLeod
She was born a child of God and native in her heart but something was lost a true history never taught cause survival is rare for women of her nation and though the odds are stacked against her she will lead her generation

Courtenay Price
cause there's an ugly truth, she's fighting for her dreams she wants to break the cycle, be likely to succeed and find the hope and guidance, her people really need but on the inside, it's harder than it seems

Nadia Wilson
she's carrying the weight, the struggles that it whispers so many missing people, her brothers and her sisters she'll do what it takes, not be another victim leave a mark on the world, will anybody listen?
cause

CHORUS
We are outsiders looking in...
but deep down we know
that the stories will always live
inside of our souls

and through these eyes
we can dream
and discover our pride

it all may seem black and white
but there's colour inside
YEAH MMM YEAH

but there's colour inside

Keggy Tenasco
he was born a native child but seen as a city slicker while people back at home seem to be getting sicker he sits in sharing circles some think he's skipping class while he's releasing the weight called the burden of his past

Liam Buckshot-Cote
some people call him city boy, the names make him tired others say he's lives in a teepee and dances by the fire when he's really getting educated, taking life higher than where anybody thought he could, making his life brighter wants to rise for his people and wants to raise awareness and show that his identity is something that he'll cherish but it's hard fitting in a place, where people are so careless cause he wants a great future for his children to inherit

We are outsiders looking in...

but there's colour inside

Hailey Ottawa
have you felt like this before? an outsider in your home everyone seems to ignore that your bloodline lived in a war return back to your roots and learn what they've been through be an outsider looking in but live inside the truth it's what we need to do cause

We are outsiders looking in...
