

Spellbound

Liblikas

Crawling upwards
Seek to drain life, make you hollow
Growing out from what you feed them
Screams of these beasts from the underground
Keep grinding your soul to dust
'Til death in their spell you're bound
Shreds of a past greet the hourglass
Never letting your peace to last
'Til death in their spell you're bound
Fear just drives them
Run away and they'll run at you
Fear or loathe them, from you they stem
You defy them
Satisfy them with your graces
In the end you're still a madman
