Only In My Dreams

Reactive Black

I can't call it love again
It's hurting inside
It doesn't help me feel
Going on with everything?

I don't mind what's going on
I left everything behind
I just feel it won't belong
To me any longer

Only in my dreams

In dreams it calls me everytime
Forget it once and forever
I still won't wait any longer

Better to be on my own!
