When You Come Home

Brendan Biondi

I hear you moving around so jump up out of my bed and kiss you!!!
But then you turn around and leave me!
I don't understand stand.
So I run around and leap up on the sofa to see you getting in your car.
Then I bark!!!
Oh I feel so sad and I pull my bed and sleep right next to the door.
I wake up to you pushing me gently away from the door and give me a big hug ohh I love you.
