

When You Come Home

Brendan Biondi

I hear you moving around so jump up out of my bed and kiss you!!!

But then you turn around and leave me!

I don't understand stand.

So I run around and leap up on the sofa to see you getting in your car.

Then I bark!!!

Oh I feel so sad and I pull my bed and sleep right next to the door.

I wake up to you pushing me gently away from the door and give me a big hug ohh I love you.
