Refusal

Forever Changed

You try to walk away.
I've been wondering why you say you've lost your faith and that you're not the same.
But you're always the same, why can't you realize you've said this a million times...it always ends this way.
But you don't, no you don't stop hanging on.
And you don't, no you don't stop hanging on.
You try to walk away.
You say that I'm to blame.
I never follow through.
You're claiming I'm so fake no matter what I say.
Well maybe you could tell me what to do since you know the truth.
Why don't you say what you want to say?
Say it to my face.
You can't let go.
No you can't let go.
But you don't', no you don't stop hanging on.
And you don't, no you don't stop hanging on.
