

Overrated

Helmet

Today's another day
You won't deny that
It came so slow you don't remember
When you got so fatUp above the bathroom mirror
The light'll make you weak
But it's that pacifying lie
That grows now every week
Every weekAnd still you hate it
It's overratedI'll never forget things like, who did what?
Cover old ground and drag what's useless up
I won't feel guilty about being late again
There's no one to answer to and no one to hate
