

Second Heartbeat

Avenged Sevenfold

Yeah

We keep writing, talking and planning, but everything's changing
We all know what to do but no one does it
Now this time has passed and full of regret
Two in my heart have left me awhile

I stand alone , when they get back it won't be the same
Never be the same
My life you've always been there
Now your gone and my heads spinning

Left the childhood, left the memories, left the good times in the past
Moving on your time has run out
Wishing the clock would stand still, the worlds can't wait, wasting away once again, once lived as friends

As time passes by, regrets for the rest of my life
The ones who I confide were gone in the black of the night

Never will I forget you, and all the memories past, so rarely I get to see your face
Growing
