Nantes

You waste away a spinning cage
Mass binded by the sun
You spend your day stuck in a race
And life has just begun
A paradise is in eclipse
And lives are lost and for distress
The wage of sin is money spent
Your life, a debt full of regret
We are lost in the maze
Falling away
And now your life amounts to nothing
A fortune has a price
'Cause in the end all humans die
A debt your in the hide
A paradise is in eclipse
And lives are lost and for distress
The wage of sin is memory spent
Your life, a debt full of regret
We are lost in the maze
Falling away
Falling away again
Falling away again
Falling away again
Falling away again
Get up
Get up
Get up
Get up
Lost in the maze
Falling away
Falling away again
Falling away again
Falling away again
Falling away again
Fall
(Falling away again)
Fall
(Falling away again)
Fall

(Falling away again)

Fall

(Falling away again)
