Invisible

Exilia

Analyze Realize
Analyze
Set me free

Staring at the ceiling
Time is not deleting
The memory
And it?s killing me, killing me
Pieces of a story
Did you ever worry?
But you?re so right
Love does not exist
Finally it?s over
We can hate each other
Inside this pain

But I realize
Realize

Everything dies,
Like a flower dies,
Everything dies,
when there is no light,
Everything fades in me,
These scars are like thorns in my skin
Everything dies
Like a rose that needs the rain
On a blazed day
where I fade away

So you let the silence
speaking for your violence
But it?s not enough
Not enough for me
Waiting for the cause
In your stagnant pause, let me die again

But I realize

Realize

Everything dies
Like a flower dies
Everything dies,
when there is no light
Everything fades in me
These scars are like thorns in my skin
Everything dies
Like a rose that needs the rain
On a blazed day
where I fade away

Invisible,
We fade away
Invisible
Can we hate each other, inside this pain?
