

Piss N Vinegar

Anthrax

It was a day to remember
Twice as hard as long
That was the day that I convinced myself
That I found my God I tip my cap and I step up
I fix myself to the right
I move right into the firing zone
And scream, drink, fuck or fight It's just a matter of respect
Or is that something I missed
This ain't no peace train that you're jumping on
So shake my hand and shake it strong Everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along Sometimes I can't stop the shaking
At least I know I'm not dead
I don't remember whose blood this is
I've got a hammer inside my head I get put up, I get put down
And I don't even try
I've burned a bridge, I've burned a whole town
'Cause I'm motherfucking fortified I tell the truth or just a gilded lie
And then I charge like a bull with his balls tied
This ain't no peace train that you're jumping on
So shake my hand and shake it strong Everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along A heavy dose of reality
With a side of piss 'n vinegar
A free drink at the bar
And you'll take it So shake my hand and shake it strong And everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along, long, strong
Everybody come along A heavy dose of reality
With a side of piss 'n vinegar
A swift kick in the ass
And you'll t-t-take it, t-t-take it
