Museum

Kelvin Sholar

I drink sweet wine for breakfast
I slept but an hour or so
I smiled a little in the silence
Deciding on where to go"Meet me under the whale
At the natural history museum"
I think that's what she said
A little bit said about having to leave themYawning in the sun
It's like a child I runDon't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
Now, don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like thatSo little do you think of beauty
Isn't it a shame what-ho?
Maybe you should go, get your parents
And make all your troubles goThere she stood in drag
Looking cool in astrakhan
She's lookin' a little wiped out
She said I looked like Peter PanAnd yawning in the sun
It's like a child I runDon't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
Now, don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like thatNow, don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
Now, don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
