

Snowflake

Jim Reeves

(Snowflake, snowflake, snowflake)Hey-hey-hey snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snow flake (snowflake)

Oh-oh-oh the change in the water has made it better for me

Hey-hey-hey snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snowflake (snowflake)

You've got me warm as fire with a burning desire for youSnow was falling when love come calling on this lonely heart of mine

You were standing there with snow flakes in your hair

You kept stalling while my thoughts were calling on every way I knew

For one excuse to get acquainted with youThen I said snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snow flake
(snowflake)

Oh-oh-oh the change in the water has made it better for me

Hey-hey-hey snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snowflake (snowflake)

You've got me warm as fire with a burning desire for youThe ice was breaking and love was waking a winter wonderland

When I felt you slip your fingers in my hand

Now snow is gleaming and I'm not dreaming I know this is for real

The love I have is too much to concealHey-hey-hey snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snow flake
(snowflake)

Oh-oh-oh the change in the water has made it better for me

Hey-hey-hey snowflake (snowflake) my pretty little snowflake (snowflake)

You've got me warm as fire with a burning desire for you (snowflake)
