Velvet Kevorkian

Strapping Young Lad

I want to be where the action is it's time again we won't get a second chance everything is dying fuck sleep, fuck beauty, I know I have to make it alone it's 2:45 a.m. and I'm freaking out all I can think of is glory, and I'm sitting in burnaby at 2:45 in the fucking morning freaking the fuck outone month and I'm gone forever fuck this once and for all... and just like all those bullshit jobs I swore I'd never go back to I swear I'll never go back to this lifefuck thiscan you believe this shit people? all you stupid fucking people with your useless fucking lives and your bullshit priorities and your sick fucking wars and your pathetic religion and your shit music and your sick fucking hate bullshit, sitcom, north american ignorance a new time is coming and we know you'll awake in therewho's your daddy?
