I Don't Dance

Ronnie Dunn

We've seen it all, me and this old guitar
Sweatin' it out in these cowboy bars
With the lost souls, winners, losers and cheaters

Done everything you can do in here
Late nights, fist fights, strippin' my gears
I've had a good time
I know where to draw the line

I don't dance
That's somethin' I don't do
I don't dance
I bring it home to you
Standin' up here in the smoke and the lights
I know who's gonna hold me tonight

I don't dance
Or play with the truth
Take a chance
Of ever losing
You're the only one I sing my love songs to
I don't dance with anybody but you

Oh temptation
She comes in here to hit me
Waltzing through the music and the whiskey
And that old devil gone a round or two

Yeah that's cowgirls,
Yeah they sure look fine
And they go to gettin' lonely around closing time
I know what their eyes are sayin'
When that old song starts playin'

I don't dance
That's somethin' I don't do
I don't dance
I bring it home to you
Standin' up here in the smoke and the lights

I know who's gonna hold me tonight

I don't dance
Or play with the truth
Take a chance
Of ever losing
You're the only one I sing my love songs to
I don't dance with anybody but you

Oh, I don't dance
Or play with the truth
Take a chance
Of ever losing
You're the only one I sing my love songs to
I don't dance with anybody but you

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by MURPHY, RONNIE DUNN, CRAIG WISEMAN
Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC., OLD DESPERADOS, LLC, N2D PUBLISHING COMPANY, INC.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/