Translation:

At midnight, I heard my phone ring and rubbed my sleepy eyes
In my dark room, my screensaver glowed with blue and white light
Do you believe in the thing called fate?
I'm sure this has nothing to do with fate, you said
You'd recklessly vent your emotions on anyone that you can find
I don't dislike that part of you

A simple 0 (love) game
Even though no one is playing tricks, I keep on losing
I want to do something about it
But the threads of reality are entangled like a spider's web

Sigh as I hear the sigh across the phone
I feel both annoyance and sympathy
To prevent myself from thinking about this and that Alone in my room, I'll dash out to the streets
Slipping through the interval between the red light
Going across the sleepless night
It feels like something has started to change but, I'm scared

A simple 0 (love) game
That should've been the last time, but somehow I'm stuck in it
My heart is filled with emotions that I've never felt before

This isn't me, I couldn't just tell you that honestly
Instead, I hurt you with my childish and selfish requests
This will do, I say to myself, even though it's not true
But I can't help it, I can't get out of this ridiculous fate anymore

A complete 0 (love) game
Even if I keep on losing, I don't wanna stop
I'll do something about it, so that I can survive in this reality
That's like a spider's web, and that's what this game is all about

No matter what kind of future awaits us
A simple 0 (love) game
That's right, no matter what the future brings
A simple 0 (love) game
