

Last Straw

J.J. Sinatra

I heard that you went out last night
And you looked beautiful just like a bat
    Beneath the moonlight
I stayed home took a Vicodin...
    Sometimes it's all that I can do
When I think about the president
    How did he become the president?
And I stayed awake for a day or two
    I thought about the world
    Drank gin and watched the news
And there are some things I'll never understand
    Why the country needs a God
    And a woman needs a man

    And you never write me letters
    And you never sent my sweaters
So I could stay warm when I was without you
    Without you I don't sleep
    Just dream...

And I scratch these words into a black notebook
I wrote your name on top I knew you'd never look
    I tried my best to fight the atmosphere
    To think the happy thoughts
    That leave the phone lines clear
    I see Arizona stars from here
    But Peter Pan is miles away

    And you never write me letters
    And you never sent my sweaters
So I could stay warm when I was without you
    Without you I don't have...
    A place that's safe from all the monsters
    That hide in my head and sing me to sleep (sleep)
    This is the last straw...

    This is the last straw she said
    And I won't wait for you forever
    While you run around like JFK
    You watched that poor girl

Waste the best years of her life
And I'll be damned if I am going out
I will not go out that way!

And you never write me letters
And you never sent my sweaters
So you could stay warm when I was gone
Without you I don't have...
A place that's safe from all the monsters
That hide in my head and keep me 'til dawn
And I think this is the last straw.
