Make Me New

Halogen

I see the morning sun; I hear another train roll by Here's just another day, I have to make it through alive
I just can't take no more, 'cause I feel lost and blind
For I am desperate Lord, don't pass me by

Oh, now's the time, to stand up and feel alive
Oh, your strength runs through me
Oh Lord, yea, you make me new
You make me new

Look at this restless soul, another broken hearted man
Content in loneliness, living in a place that I can't stand
I just can't take no more, I feel lost and blind
For I am desperate Lord, don't pass me by
