

Are You Gonna

Ginger Sling

I see a thousand suns
As I talk to you
But not one of them
Shines as bright as you I've never seen a star that hasn't fallen
Turned to red and left me feeling blue
Is this you? Are you gonna break my heart?
Oh well
It won't be the first time.
Are you gonna bring me down a whole step?
Are you gonna cut me down?
This pine?
That's fine
It won't be the last time
Are you gonna break my heart? Planted long before
You were ever born
Are those tings of hers
Too many for you to mourn? I've never met a boy that made me happy
Makes me laugh and maes me so afraid.
It's all the same. Are you gonna break my heart?
Oh well
It won't be the first time.
Are you gonna bring me down a whole step?
Are you gonna cut me down?
This pine?
That's fine
It won't be the last time
Are you gonna break my heart? And I won't be sleeping much tonight
Waiting for your call
Got a taste of you
Now I want it all
A slip of the tongue
Swallow my pride
Is it better on the inside?
Will you care what's on the inside? Are you gonna break my heart?
Oh well
It won't be the first time.
Are you gonna bring me down a whole step?
Are you gonna cut me down?
This pine?

That's fine
It won't be the last time
Are you gonna
Are you gonna
Are you gonna break my heart? Are you gonna break my heart?
Oh well
It won't be the first time.
Are you gonna bring me down a whole step?
Are you gonna cut me down?
This pine?
That's fine
All for the last time
Are you gonna
Are you gonna
Are you gonna break my heart?
