

Something to Remind You

Philip Bailey

Sure like
The pure light
No end

And sure when dark
It's hard to breathe
Love proves you believe

In Love's eye's
For you see
No cares

And where you fall
Love's arms are there
Catching all your fears
Caressing all your tears
Indeed

Angels rejoice every time
You say I'm yours
I raise my voice to heaven
For your love
An ocean without shore
So free
Love is all believe

In the lonely nights
Love will shield and guide
To life's warmer heights
Through the wind and sky you fly
Golden spring delights
Love sends something to remind you

When your hearts a fright
Love will always be your guide
To life's warmer sights
Surely you can fly
Like God's gentle might
Love forevermore

Grace will find you

    New day light
    Love's beside and guides you
        To warmer heights
        Surely you can fly
        Like God's gentle might
        Love forevermore
        Everlasting

    Lonely nights
    Love will shield and guide
        Keep you warm and right
    Through the wind and sky you fly
        Like God's gentle might
        Love forevermore
        Love will find you
