Time Bomb

Godsmack

I am in a living hell,
makes me wonder if
I'm alive Can't seem to bring myself to figure
out why And I shove,
and I pull away
To the things that I
call you every day I can't seem to break you
down But I know
I'll come
around
I
feel your pins
Through my eyes
Piercing me
Lie down in all this piss
You drink it
from me every day
I live in a world of shit Been left here to dieSometimes I
realize My mind
was meant to
go away Never have
I seen your God
So why should
I believe in faith?I
feel your pins
Through my eyes
Piercing me through
the timeAnother
time bombI
am in a living hell,
makes me wonder if I'm alive Can't seem to bring myself to figure out why And I shove, and I pull away
To the things that I call you every night I can't seem to break you down But I know I'll come aroundI feel your pins

Through my eyes
Piercing me through the
timeI never find the time to find another fuckin'
place I'm a bad motherfucker who lives it every day
You never look at me now
You never look me in the face
I'm a time bomb, time bomb, babyI can't find the time to find a place I'm a bad motherfucker who lives it every day You never look at me now, you never look me in the face
I'm a time bomb, time
bomb, yeah
What am I
waiting for?I
never find the time to find another fuckin' place I'm a bad motherfucker who
lives it
every day
You never look at me now,
you never look me in the face
I'm a time bomb,
yeahTime bomb Time bomb,
time bomb Time bomb,
time bomb
