Resupply

Mark King

Hey man
Can somebody show me who I am?
Give me a feeling of what it is
That I am running fromAnd let me know
Where I could go
I believe, my heart tells me things I can't conceive
My soul screams mercy pleaseResupply me with myself
Resupply me with myself
I don't want to be nobody else
I only want to be myself
I only ever wanted to be myselfDear God
Can somebody tell me where I am?
Tell me, there's something more than pain
Begging you on my knees againJust 'cause I cursed you
Don't desert me 'cause that's worse
And I need you to cure me of this thirst
I need you to cure my thirstResupply me with myself
Resupply me with myself
I don't want to be nobody else
I only want to be myself
I only ever wanted to be myself
I don't wanna be nobody elseResupply me with myself
Resupply me with myself
I don't wanna be nobody else
I only wanna by myself
I only ever wanted to be myselfSomebody tell me
Who I am
