

Just Playin' Possum

Alan Jackson

I parked my car 'round back
I've got the shades pulled down
I told everybody including my mama
I was leaving town But I've been right here
Since you've been gone
Belly-up at the bottom of a bottle
Listening to George Jones And just playin' possum
Layin' low
I've got hundred watts of hurtin'
Coming through the speakers of my stereo Don't want to see nobody
Nowhere, I want to go
I'm just playin' possum
And layin' low I'm gonna hide my heart
And be a love recluse
Oh, I could cry on my best friend's shoulder
But there ain't no use I need an expert on
The pain I'm going through
So I'll keep George on the old turntable
'Til I'm over you And just playin' possum
Layin' low
I've got hundred watts of hurtin'
Coming through the speakers of my stereo Don't want to see nobody
Nowhere, I want to go
I'm just playin' possum
And layin' low Tell 'em, George
He's playin' possum
And he's layin' low
