

Blue

Samuel Larsen

Colder in the sun bleeding into summer we swear that this is love oh but we keep feeling smaller and you got me so blue (oo oo oo oo)and ill never be the same cos you know i got the fever but i don't know what it takes to make you a believercos I just keep turning those hazel eyes blue blue (oo oo oo)so never be afraid cos you know that ill come runnin'
to make you feel like somethin'
